THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES,

From October 1, 1893, to October 1, 1894.

The trustees submit herewith the various reports, showing the operations of the Hospital during the past Hospital year. The number of in-patients treated was 1616, and of out-patients (Dispensary) 6978. The former show only a slight decrease as compared with the preceding (World's Fair) year, while the latter show a large increase.

The Free Dispensary work of the Hospital is one of its most important features and is rapidly growing. The Dispensary staff has recently been enlarged, and a system under which the deserving poor are furnished with medicines at cost, has, it is believed, produced beneficial results.

The total maintenance expense of the Hospital during the past year, was, in round numbers, about $70,000. The income about equaled expenses.

We would call attention to the fact that the business depression operated to reduce our income from our invested endowment property to the extent of about $9,000.

This serious loss has been made up in part by the generosity of friends and partly by rigid economy, but also, of necessity, in part by greater earnings from pay patients.

Notwithstanding this the percentage of free work among in-patients is slightly in excess of last year, and if we take into the reckoning the shortage of part pay patients, considerably more than half the Hospital work is done without compensation. The Trustees would also call the attention of charitable persons to the fact that all donations to the Hospital are directly available to increase its benevolent work of caring for the destitute sick. The officers of the Hospital would rejoice, if sufficient means were placed in their hands to warrant their receiving every such case coming to our door so long as a bed stood vacant.

The debt of the Hospital (chiefly a building debt) has been still further reduced during the past year, to the extent of about $10,000, being now about $30,000, as against $40,000 a year ago, and $50,000 in 1892.

For this we have reason to be thankful, but none the less to remember that the remaining debt is a burden upon us which must be lifted, if the Institution is to prosper.

During the year the Hospital has received a donation from W. G. Hibbard, Esq., of $5,000 for the endowment of a bed, also legacies of $4,000 from the estate of Sarah T. Peck, and $25,000 from the estate of Louisa Hadduck. At the request of Mrs. Hadduck's representatives her legacy was used for the purchase of a lot on Indiana Ave., immediately north of and adjoining the Hospital, upon which is to be located our proposed Nurses' Home. In our last report we called attention to this matter and asked if some friend or friends of the Hospital would not furnish this, the greatest need of the Institution. The response is already gratifying, but with a site already provided, we feel that we can with additional reason hope that a building may be provided. Such a building would cost in the neighborhood of $25,000, and while filling an urgent—the most urgent—need of the Hospital, would be at the same time the most beautiful of memorials to whomsoever the donor might wish. During the year the support of new beds has been undertaken by Watson F. Blair, Esq., J. W. Doane, Esq., and the St. Luke's Woman's Auxiliary (two beds), and by the daughters of the late Mrs. Hibbard Porter.

The Trustees desire to render the thanks of the Institution to the Medical Board, the House Staff and the Dispensary Board for faithful services during the year. They would also thank the officers, pupils and employes of the Hospital and Training School for their services.

The Trustees also desire to thank the ladies of the Auxiliary Board for their devotion to the interests of the hospital.

The various reports are herewith submitted showing the operation of the Hospital in detail.

Rendering thanks to Almighty God for His mercies to us, and commending the Hospital to the public, we are,

Faithfully yours,

ARTHUR RYERSON, President.

The number of hospital days devoted to pay and part pay	22,450
Total number of hospital days		41,770

The Hospital year began in the rush and crowd of the World's Fair, and we had an average of over 140 patients during October. From the middle of November the work grew lighter, the average for the next ten months being 112, and for the year 115. The greatest number of patients in the Hospital was 149 on November 7, 1893, the smallest number 89, June 11, 1894. The demand for private rooms has been steady and the earnings from pay patients larger than in any previous year.

Improvements of a permanent sort have been made in many departments of the hospital. The office has received some new furniture and new books, arranged for easy inspection at any time, and examined monthly by an expert accountant. The laundry machinery has been renewed to a very considerable extent at a cost of some $500. Alterations have been made to the boilers and smoke stack with a view to safety and economy. New steam cooking apparatus has been added in the kitchen, and the old ice room has been replaced by a large ice-box of approved pattern, which enables us to buy meat and other supplies in large quantities, thereby improving the quality and lessening the cost at the same time.

The increase in the salary account over last year is accounted for, to some extent, by the fact that more hands are employed, and much work done by employes, formerly done by contract; and also, we believe, by a marked improvement in the manner of maintaining the Hospital.

It has been the aim of the Hospital management to keep expenses down as low as possible, yet at the same time it has been felt that the quality of the work done, the excellence of diet and supplies, the efficiency of the Hospital at every point must be kept up, and St. Luke's high standard maintained. While our aim is to do good, to heal the sick, and as many of them as possible, still it is, we believe, the desire of all who are interested in the Hospital that patients admitted here shall have the very best of care, good, comfortable quarters, plenty of pure, wholesome food, skillfully prepared and properly served, and no lack of medical and surgical appliances for the best treatment of their ailments. This Institution has also an educational work to do, and for the sake of its effect upon internes, nurses and all within the house, there must be a perfect readiness to provide such means as are necessary in the light of the scientific knowledge of the present day for the treatment of our sick and injured charges.

We accordingly ask the hearty support of all who desire to care for the suffering poor, assuring them that on our part the earnest, constant effort will be made to expend wisely and with the strictest economy all the means intrusted to us, while it will be our purpose to make the Hospital maintain its high rank as an educator and as a house of healing.

We need more funds than heretofore, for with full faith the Hospital has lengthened its cords and strengthened its stakes. We have room for more than we have means to care for, and we ask for help to provide for all that the wards will properly accommodate.

Very respectfully,

J. W. Van Ingen,
Superintendent.

THE CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

I hold three services in the Chapel every morning. This includes an early celebration of the Holy Communion every Sunday, Thursday and Saint's Day.

Wednesday evening the Chapel bell rings to call all who will to practice the hymns and chants. On Friday and Sunday evenings, the household, night nurses and convalescents are again invited to Evening Prayer.

Every day I read a short form of Evening Prayer, sanctioned by the Bishop, in each of the five principal wards of the Hospital, and say a more simple prayer with the children in the Florence ward. At other times, so far as circumstances will permit, and my own strength will allow, I visit the bedside of patients for the performance of the functions of my office.

During the last year, I baptized sixty-six infants from the obstetrical ward, read the burial service in the Chapel seven times, and performed the marriage service thrice.

A Sister of Charity, of the Community of St. Mary, visits the Hospital every week from Kenosha. She brings peace and leaves joy. In return, I would ask some one, who is able and willing, to pay the railway fare for the coming year, of this ministering angel.

The frequent use of the Chapel has rendered it necessary to appeal for new surplices and hymnals. The communion alms are barely sufficient to pay the current expenses of the sanctuary.

I wish to thank the "Chicago Club" and others, for their valuable gifts of illustrated papers and magazines donated in the course of the last year. They have contributed much to lighten the sorrows of many.

St. Luke's Hospital with its "Chapel of St. Luke the Beloved Physician" is a most important cure in the Diocese of Chicago. Here is represented every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, of the civilized world. One of these strangers remarked on leaving the Chapel, "Surely this is the Church of Christ. The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the deaf hear, and the poor have the gospel preached to them."

EDWARD WARREN.

Iodoform purchased	116.50
Surgical supplies		$ 516.50
Total medical supplies		$3,126.41
Sales by charge slips to office	$238.56
Sales by Dispensary prescript	56.70
Total		$ 295.26
Net cost of pharmaceutical supplies		$2,831.15

Since commencing the compounding of dispensary prescriptions, I have dispensed for out-patients seven hundred twelve (712) prescriptions, with a revenue of $56.70, an average of nearly eight cents each, or about one half the average cost.

The "patent" or secret formula preparations in use here a year ago included Protonol, Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites, Golden's Liquid Beef Tonic, Carlsbad Sprudel Salts, Liquid Peptonoids, Syrup of Figs, etc. Their use has been continually discouraged, however, until now the demand is limited to two or three kinds.

As far as possible and consistent with economy, all preparations are manufactured in the drug room.

Respectfully submitted,

L. M. Sawyer,

October, 1894. Pharmacist.
